

Vanatta Named LinkEx National Account Executive

JOHNS CREEK, Ga. – (Nov. 14, 2018) – LinkEx, a Saia, Inc. subsidiary, is pleased to announce that Bill Vanatta has joined the company as a national account executive. Vanatta will be based out of Nashville, Tennessee and be responsible for helping Fortune 500 companies to more effectively manage their supply chains.

Additional responsibilities will include working closely with the Saia salesforce, both local and national, to further expand their customer relationships through LinkEx's offering of value-added services. Vanatta has 30 years of experience in the transportation and logistics industry.

"I am extremely excited to have Bill join our organization," said LinkEx Vice President and General Manager David Miller. "He comes to us with extensive executive and business development experience. He will be an integral part of helping us continue to grow."
